

Implementation SIG – Presentations held between Feb 2009 and April 2010

Date	Presentation Summary
24 th February 2009	Experiences shared from a large-scale implementation of SNOMED in Hospital Italiano, Argentina. Presented by Alejandro Lopez Osornio and Guillermo Reynoso, terMed IT, Buenos Aires, Argentina.
24 th March 2009	The various uses of SNOMED in the university's health IT research laboratory. Presented by Jon Patrick, University of Sydney, Australia.
28 th April 2009	The practicalities and challenges of implementing SNOMED in a clinical system for use in the UK. Presented by Mike Cooke, Westhill Consulting, UK.
12 th May 2009	Looking at high level content with the implementation of SNOMED. Presented by Georg Brox, Scarborough, UK.
26 th May 2009	Ways in which SNOMED could be implemented in a clinical environment and how to overcome the shortfalls of SNOMED. Presented by Patrick Hulsen, Daintel, Denmark.
30 th June 2009	How SNOMED is utilised in conjunction with the CAP cancer checklists. Presented by Cory Hall, CAP, USA and John Madden, Duke University, USA.
22 nd Sep 2009	SNOMED in an emergency care solution - challenges faced in implementing SNOMED in a pre-configured application environment. Presented by David Robinson, The CSC Alliance, UK.
30 th November 2009	How Kaiser currently uses SNOMED and how SNOMED can be moved to OWL (SHIQ). Presented by Peter Hendler, Kaiser Permanente, USA.
22 nd December 2009	Findings and lessons learned - SNOMED incorporated into an existing palliative information system. Presented by Dennis Lee and Francis Lau, Alberta Health Services, Canada.
26 th January 2009	Challenges and successes of using SNOMED in Point-of-Service clinical software. Presented by Justin Liu, University Health Network, Canada.
23 rd February 2010	Experiences with SNOMED in a developing country and screenshots of the Caché application. Presented by Denham Pole, NetCom Technologies, Sri Lanka.
30 th March 2010	Diagnosis and the pragmatic use of SNOMED in an emergency department. Presented by Tony Shannon, Leeds Teaching Hospitals, UK.
29 th April 2010	SNOMED – Release Format 2. Presented by John Gutai, IHTSDO, UK.